Family Sunday and Faithful Families Sunday, May 19

Let's Eat!

Instructed Eucharist and Family Activity

The Eucharist is the central act of our Sunday gathering. All are welcome ... it is our family meal. On Sunday, May 19th we will slow things down a bit, listen to some narration, explain some of the symbols, and notice the power of our story in the words and action.

Following the service, in our Faithful Families event, Reverend Kathryn will lead an intergenerational half hour program exploring the meaning of our participation in the Eucharist and then we will all practice setting the altar while learning about the special 'dishes and linens' we use. This will be very hands on and accessible to preschool through elementary age children who may participate with an adult.

It is part of our responsibility to revisit and offer ongoing formation for our children in this central action of our weekly worship. Please give your family the gift of experiencing this together as you seek to raise your family in the life of faith.
